By now you will all be very familiar with our Winter and Summer Magazines and Spring Newsletter being delivered by our loyal team of wardens and these publications will continue to be the major way we communicate with our members.

There are, however, many occasions when there is a need to relay information regarding Broadstone to our members more quickly. We are, therefore, endeavouring to increasingly do this via our two brand new notice boards, outside the Post Office and Budgens and now with our website - www.broadstoneresidents.org.uk

Our aim is to update it very frequently with the latest news on Broadstone issues and we invite all those with Internet access to bookmark the page in order to keep in touch with us regularly.

In addition, we currently have pages on:

- ❖ Planning Applications
- ❖ What's On in Broadstone
(mirrored monthly on our notice boards)
- ❖ Nature News
- ❖ The War Memorial
- ❖ Executive Committee Meeting Minutes
(also to be found in the library)

There is also the opportunity to easily contact any of our Committee Members regarding anything to do with Broadstone and we would also welcome some feedback on our new website and perhaps some suggestions on what else you would like to see there.

Badbury Sunset by David Herrington

This year's spring exhibition was as always a very popular event attracting visitors from far and wide. The preview evening was very well attended and it was a great opportunity to see and meet the artists and a chance to buy an original painting at a realistic price .

We sold 14 framed paintings and considering the economic climate that was a credit to the club and its members.

The Norman Worth Cup was awarded to David Herrington for the best painting as voted by the public entitled 'Badbury Sunset'.

The Heatley Rose Bowl was awarded to Patricia Burns for her painting entitled 'Bluebells' The Margaret Cleave Award, a painting by Peter Joyce was awarded to Thea Hodgson for the most innovative painting entitled 'Spring Labernum'.

And lastly the best abstract as voted by the members was awarded to Gill Faraway for her painting entitled 'Forest Fantasy'.

The winner of the raffle prize was Liz Bowes which was a painting kindly donated by Patricia Burns.

The next exhibition will be at Shapwick Village Church on the 22nd and 23rd of August.

The Autumn Exhibition will be held at Broadstone Arts and Community Centre from the 25th to the 31st of October, the theme for part of the exhibition will be ELEMENTS.
